ORIENTAL WAR DRAMA MAKES CHANGES

PEKIN SOLDIERS RAID THE SOVIET EMBASSY BUILDING

Twenty-Two Russian and 50 Chinese, Described As Agitators, Removed By General Chang Tso Lin Commander of Northern Army—Americans Held—Overt Act Stirs New Crises That May Bring Armies of Moscow Into the Field.

The Chinese foreign office Wednesday night lodged a protest with the Soviet embassy as a result of the findings in Wednesday's raid. The ground of the protest was the "use of the Soviet embassy to disseminate propaganda for the overthrow" of the existing government.

Peking, the ancient capital of China and now seat of the northern government as the country is divided between north and south in civil strife, Wednesday night had become the principal stage in the Oriental war drama.

New international complications are apparent as a result of the raid Wednesday on buildings attached to the Soviet embassy and the removal of 22 Russians and 50 Chinese, described as agitators.

What action Moscow will take as the aftermath of the episode is arousing keenest speculation, and all eyes are turned in the direction of the Soviet capital and the Russo-Manchurian frontier.

The raids in the embassy compound were continued thruout the day, but Wednesday night the embassy proper had not been entered. However, Soviet authorities regarded the premises entered to be part of the embassy so the greatest apprehension was felt on all sides.

Certain official quarters, looking into the future, even professed to see an alignment of Soviet Russia and southern China against the European powers, the United States and north China.

The raid on the Soviet buildings was carried out by troops attached to the army of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, assisted by Peking police. The buildings raided were the Dahlbank (Soviet bank), the Eastern railway building and a building formerly used by the Russian Legation guards in czarist times.

The raiders rushed the compound Wednesday morning. One shot was heard and soon afterward a Russian was dragged from the compound fighting and kicking. He was bound and carried off in an automobile.

The raiders searched the buildings and by noon a large crowd of foreigners and Chinese had gathered at the gateway of the embassy to watch the prisoners dragged out. A number went quietly and others struggled violently.

While the raid was in progress fire started in the building formerly occupied by the Russian legation guard. A report was circulated, altho its truth could not be confirmed, that the fire was started to prevent records falling into the hands of the northeners. Two fire brigades sped to the building and extinguished the flames, altho not before ammunition in the structure exploded, wounding one Russian seriously.

Reliable information indicated that officially there is considered to be a great distinction between the Soviet embassy proper, where the officers and residences of leading Soviet officials are situated and the other part of the embassy grounds containing the Dahlbank, the Chinese eastern railway offices and the residences of many minor officials and other Russians.

Theoretically the raid was said to be not on the embassy, but on the eastern railway building and the Dahlbank. To reach the railway building however, the troops had to go several hundred yards along a road within the Legation quarter.

For this, permission was asked from and granted by the diplomatic corps. The railway partly is Chinese owned.

Among those arrested were the staff of the Dahlbank, a prominent Chinese agitator named Li Ta-Chao and three girl students. The Russians and Chinese seized by the raiders were taken to a police station.

Numerous bundles of red flags, seven carloads of propaganda leaflets, a machine gun, a trench mortar, bombs, a score of rifles, thousands of Kuomintang (the Cantonese political party) flags and a quantity of ammunition were said to have been taken from the raided buildings.

STERILIZATION MEASURE GETS COMMITTEE O. K.

Codes committee of the house Wednesday recommended for passage the Cummings bill to provide for sexual sterilization of mental defectives and certain classes of criminals. The committee struck out of the bill a section which would have permitted persons outside institutions to be thus treated.

Dr. E. J. Emerick, superintendent of the state bureau of juvenile research, who spoke for the bill, said the medical profession was practically unanimous for the measure. The bill, he said, was modeled after the California law with similar requirements.

The house health committee has recommended for passage the Chappelear eugenics marriage bill, which requires a physical examination of applicants for marriage licenses and legalizes sterilization. Both bills have passed the senate.

COWBOY FINDS BODIES OF AIR MAIL FLIERS

Pair Killed When the Plane Crashed to Earth in Darkness of Early Morning.

Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Italian world flyer of Apache lodge, Roosevelt Lake, Arizona, Thursday was uncertain as to plans for resuming his four continent jaunt following the burning of his plane the "Santa Maria."

Before retiring late yesterday with orders not to be disturbed until today, the flyer said he would remain and attempt to raise his wrecked plane from the 185 feet of water in which it sank.

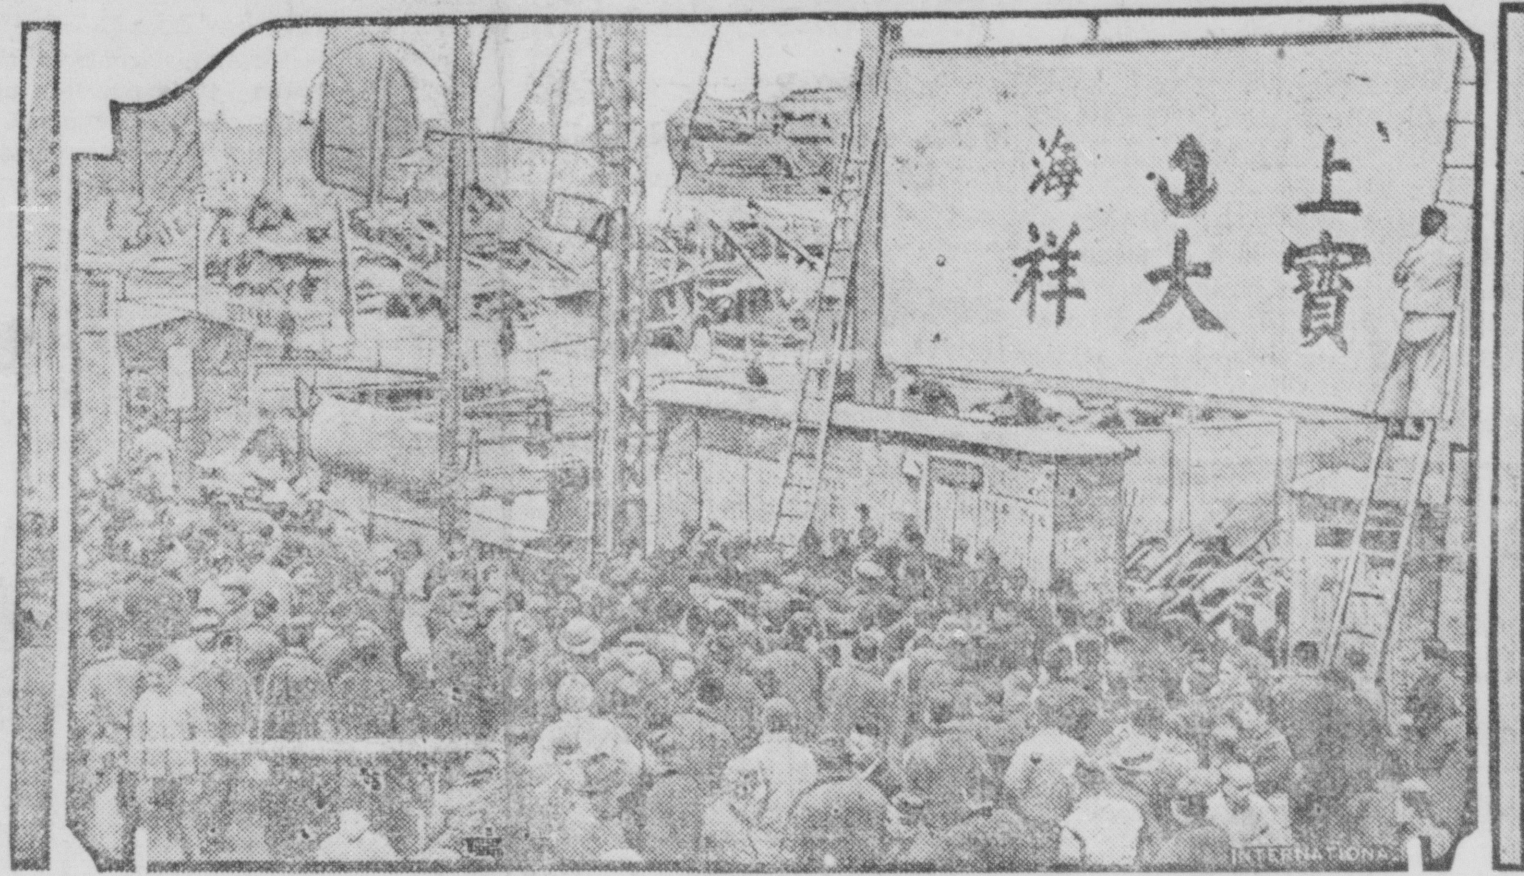

War department officials at Washington have offered De Pinedo the use of an army plane with which to complete his flight and premier Mussolini cabled word from Rome that another plane would be sent to him from Italy.

The "Santa Maria" was destroyed while at anchor on the lake by fire started when a youth tossed a cigaret into the water and ignited gasoline which had been spilled in refilling the plane.

Danger From Insects

Doctor Neave of the Entomological society of London, has stated that insects destroyed at least 10 per cent of all the plants which man cultivates for food or clothing, and it has been calculated that if the checks, natural and artificial, on the increase of the many species of green-fly, for example, were removed, the whole of the vegetable growth of the globe would be destroyed in six months.

OIL EXPLOSION KILLS SIXTEEN WYOMING CITY

Seven are Injured in Blast at Refinery—Damage One Million Dollars.

A joint funeral service for the 16 victims in an explosion at the Producers and Refiners plant at Parco, Wyoming, were being planned while officials turned toward the task of repairing damages.

The men were killed when two high pressure stills exploded and set fire to two huge storage tanks of oil.

Only seven of the 23 men at work in the plant escaped death from the blast. They are in a hospital at Rawlins and doctors said little hope was held for the recovery of six of them.

Damage to the plant and to the town was estimated at more than $500,000.

JUDGE RAYMOND EMPHATIC IN HIS RULINGS

Tells Senator Reed to Cut Out His Ridicule and Get Down to Business.

Sidelights held the interest Wednesday in Aaron Sapiro's $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford, of Detroit, Michigan, as the eighth day of cross examination labored thru the routine of ascertaining from Sapiro the names of farmers' cooperatives with which he has been affiliated and the fees he received.

There was criticism of a Republican presidential possibility by one from the Democratic ranks, when Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, chief of the Ford counsel, assailed Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois as a "capitalist" and as "the son-in-law of Pullman of the Pullman Car Co."; two stern rebukes from the court and a renewed assertion by Senator Reed that Sapiro accepted employment by two bodies and played them against each other for his personal gain.

For the second time since the trial started Sapiro testified specifically that the alleged libelous articles printed in Ford's Dearborn Independent caused him to lose a job and the income it had netted him by pointing out the facts he is a Jew and seeking to connect him with an international Jewish conspiracy to control agricultural products.

At adjournment the opposing attorneys had instructions from Federal Judge M. Haymond to select a representative each to go over journals, ledgers and other volumes of the bookkeepers' craft and agree upon a set of figures that could be submitted as evidence rather than have Senator Reed spend further days in an effort to draw them from Sapiro.

Lowden's name came into the case when Reed is asking for a list of national organizations Sapiro had represented, mentioned the National Wheat Growers advisory committee, formed at Chicago in September, 1923. Senator Reed found a number of urban names listed and scornfully asked of each: "He's not a wheat grower?"

Arriving at Lowden's name he paused and then with sarcasm demanded:

"And Governor Lowden, he never grew any wheat did he?"

Sapiro heatedly flashed his reply: "Oh, he may grow wheat. He certainly grows some grains."

"He is a capitalist, isn't he?" asked Reed with the trace of a sneer.

"No, he is not a capitalist," returned the angered witness. "He is a splendid lawyer and a very fine farmer, probably the largest farmer in some respects on the entire United States."

"Does he make his living farming or is the son-in-law of the Pullman of the Pullman Car Co?" the senator asked in conclusion.

"I don't think he makes his living as the son-in-law of Pullman," defended Sapiro. "He makes his living by his work as a lawyer and by his work as a farmer."

It was not many minutes until Reed and Sapiro were at it again, but Judge Raymond stopped them with the most emphatic ruling he has had since the trial started.

"If the witness and counsel cannot cease this sort of question and answer the court will have to intervene. The court has submitted to all that it can submit to along that line. Conversation is not to be indulged in henceforth."

FIREWORKS BILL DIES

Measure To Prevent Sale In State Shelved By Committee.

Columbus, April 6.—The Senate Committee on Commerce and Industry Tuesday indefinitely postponed consideration of the bill introduced by Senator George H. Bender to prohibit the sale of fireworks.

He said all cities now having ordinances prohibiting the sale of fireworks have to contend with the bootlegging of these articles. This he wanted to prevent.

Says Proposed Direct Levy Is Unconstitutional.

County Auditor Thatcher, in a communication to Governor Donahay Tuesday, questioned the constitutionality of the law recently enacted by the Legislature levying a half-mill tax for state purposes.

Thatcher said the levy was made upon the 1926 duplicate and because of this it is retroactive and hence unconstitutional. He explained that the 1926 duplicate has practically ceased to exist since many of the properties there established have changed hands.—Columbus Citizen.

January, 1926 — Another spectacular increase in Chevrolet value... a model offering many mechanical improvements, such as a smoother, quieter motor with three-point suspension, a silent V-belt generator drive, new oil pump, more efficient cooling, an air cleaner, larger brakes, etc. Notwithstanding these improvements... EXCELLENT

PROGRAM

Presented To Capacity Audience
At the High School Auditorium Last Night.

Especially good from start to finish was the program presented to an audience that filled every seat in the High School auditorium and left not even standing room as even the aisles on both sides were crowded, last evening.

The first number on the program was a group of songs by the High School Glee club which is composed of Katharine May, Helen Hitler, Eleanor Snyder and Mary Crist, sopranos; Mary Wiloughby, Ruth Cryder, Helen Steele and Winifred Given, altos; Chas. Walters, Carl Palm and Earl Green as tenors; Joseph Adkins, Gus Groom, Eugene Smith and Henry Harding, basses.

Probably the most attractive number to the audience was the "Toy Orchestra" composed of little tots from the second grade of the Corwin street building. These little ones to the accompaniment of a victrola, played softly on cymbals, drums, triangles, bells and tambourines and were directed by little Eileen Brooks with a regular baton. The really remarkable thing about this orchestra was the fact that each and every individual child in the lot kept perfect time and there were no breaks or errors. Every child performed his and her part perfectly. This number was a real big treat for the parents of the little ones and also for every one who witnessed it. Miss Wittich who drilled them, deserves much praise for her work and the success of the affair speaks loudly of her efforts.

Charles Walters delighted his audience by singing a tenor solo, "The Little Gray Home in the West." This was Charles' first public appearance and the applause that followed his solo was evidence of the appreciation of the audience.

In the first little playlet entitled "The Neighbors," Eleanor Fitzpatrick and Gladden Troutman had the most difficult roles which both played perfectly. Eleanor was typically matter of fact and Gladden was a scream from start to finish as the bashful lover who could not think what to say to his best girl.

Leona DeLong as Grandma, was certainly tired of sewing carpet rags. Erma Merriman was her usual comical self and was so very busy getting shot of a "buffalo bug," Ezra Williams (Eugene Smith) couldn't think of anything but cord wood. Eloise Hilyard took the part of Mrs. Moran who did not have any children but she knew, just the same. Miss Eleanor Snyder then sang two solos accompanied by Miss Wittich. She is one of the youthful artists who has personality, and like Jimmie Walker, you have to like her.

In the second playlet, "The Mock Trial," the choosing of a jury and the final decision of the same was decidedly ludicrous. In this, Eleanor Fitzpatrick shone. She was a suffragist and was the self-appointed spokesman for the jury. She had a hard time keeping Dudley Carpenter in his seat. (Footlight McGruff), who could not sit still. Also she knew the Judge (Chas. Walters) before he was Judge and when his wife took in washings to support him. She was the Everett True of the court room. Bob Pickens (Lawyer Snapcash), displayed his usual at homeness on the stage and made an excellent plea for his client, Abijah Pippins (Eugene Smith) who was being sued for breach of promise by Lenora Smithly Trustly (Mary Crist). The plaintiff was ably represented by Earl Green as Lawyer Fussboy. The entire court room was thrown into disorder when Paul (Shanty) Kirwin as Jamison Jams who "shook," finally "threw a fit," and Levi Hackhimer (Gladden Troutman), nearly lost his wares getting away. Gus Groom made a typical Chinaman as One Lung Gong, a Chinese laundryman who could not speak English nor seven other languages which the Judge spoke. Robert Peters as Hooligan was also very ludicrous as was Chas. Goeller as Vanderbilt Persimmons who was a barber by profession but gambler by preference. This was very funny and thoroughly enjoyed.

Helen Steele as the Bride's Kid in the last act was what Eleanor Glyn calls "It." Her part was acted as near perfection as a professional could have made it. Mabel Young was the bride who told about her part in the wedding and never mentioned the groom and it was finally discovered that the groom failed to materialize.

The entire program was good as we have said and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone who saw it.

Martin Van Buren Lindsey died at his home on North Court street Wednesday morning, April 6, at 10:30 o'clock. He had been seriously ill of organic heart trouble for the past seven days. The deceased was born in Circleville township, May 21, 1837. He was a son of John L. and Mary Harmon Lindsey.

Mr. Lindsey was a widower. He married Miss Jennie Trout March 28, 1869. She died in 1913.

Of his immediate family five sisters are living; Mrs. Lucy Seall, Mrs. J. G. Wagner, Mrs. Martha Hitler, Miss Harriet Lindsey of this city and Mrs. I. N. Shupe, of Fulton, Kentucky.

Mr. Lindsey was a Civil war veteran. He enlisted at the age of 24 and was commissioned a second lieutenant.

Mr. Lindsey was a farmer by occupation but retired thirty-two years ago. In politics he was a Democrat and served his party as a trustee of Jackson township for several terms.

In 1862 he enlisted in Company E, 114th O. V. I. Thirtieth Army Corps. The company went into camp at Camp Circleville, which later entered the Vicksburg campaign. He became ill on the march and was invalided home. He resigned his commission as second lieutenant, which was accepted. He later organized a Home company of militia and was made its captain and held the company in readiness to serve his company until the end of the Civil war.

The funeral services will be held from the Lutheran church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Eastern time. Rev. G. J. Troutman will officiate. Interment in Forest cemetery.

The pallbearers will be Sterling Hitler, John Seall, George Emerson, M. L. Trout, Martin Cromley and Reuben Row.

Large Breed of Rabbits

The gray Flemish giants are the largest rabbits bred by American fanciers. They attain their full development at about fifteen months, when the bucks should weigh 13 pounds or more and the does not less than 15 pounds. The adult has the appendage known as "dewlap" well developed.

AMUSEMENTS

Adolphe Menjou, that ace of actors came to the Met theater last night in a film version of Michael Arlen's "The Ace of Cads." Menjou portrays "Beau Maturin as no other player could have possibly have done. The dissolute young Guards lieutenant who reforms for love of a woman, is betrayed by a false friend, loses her and comes back twenty years later only to kill a second love so that the first may live—becomes an intensely real perdition in Menjou's skillful hands.

Those who have read Arlen's story (and who hasn't?) know that it concerns Beau's love for Eleanor, a Gramercy "frames" Maturin and com promises him in such a way that his sweetheart thinks him unfaithful. Her lack of faith makes the youth forget everything and he soon receives a dishonorable discharge from the regiment. Eleanor marries the other man and Beau goes to Paris—and for getfulness.

Years later, thinking time and the war have healed all scars, he returns. Then what? Director Luther Reed has endowed "The Ace of Cads" with one of the most amazing twists ever seen. You'll never guess what happens so why spoil your pleasure by divulging the finale?

Alice Joyce and Norman Trevor are featured in "The Ace of Cads."

When a genius comes home he is likely to be looked upon as a nut.

Service Director Schneider recommended to council the passage of an ordinance requiring each person desiring to open a ditch or otherwise disturb the surface of the streets, to be required to make a deposit of $10 to faithfully restore the portion so disturbed to its former good condition; that when the same is done to the satisfaction of the city, that the deposit be returned otherwise the deposit to be used by the city to place same in good condition. On motion of Mr. Shaner which was seconded the city solicitor was requested to prepare an ordinance in accordance with the suggestions of the service director. Motion carried.

Mr. Marion offered a motion which was seconded that this matter be referred to a committee consisting of all the members of council. Motion carried, President Goeller appointed Mr. Marion chairman of this committee.

City Engineer J. H. Sweetman submitted plans and specifications for improving Pickaway, Ohio, Washington and Clinton streets and Half avenue by constructing an extension to the Huston street storm water sewer. On motion of Mr. Baker the report was accepted and placed on file.

Council again was called to order, when the committee recommended that this money be appropriated as provided by an ordinance herewith submitted.

KING WEAKENSPoliticians Ready To Fight For Throne.

Bucharest, April 5.—(UP.)—Little groups of somber Rumanians were gathered outside the royal palace today, awaiting the signal which would tell them that King Ferdinand was dead. The king was reported to be weakening rapidly.

The city was excited yesterday by a rumor that the king, suffering from cancer and grippe, had died. The story spread rapidly.

Agreements between governmental leaders were believed to have prevented danger of political disturbances after the king's death.

Premier Averescu and former Premier Bratianu were reported to have renewed an old agreement to prevent Prince Carol from attempting to ascend the throne.

The National Peasants Party was understood to have agreed to accept the decision of other parties regarding the succession to the throne.

NEWS TO COOLIDGENot Aware That Kellogg and Butler Intend To Resign.

Washington, April 6.—(UP.)—President Coolidge's spokesman represented the chief executive as being unaware of any intention of Secretary of State Kellogg to resign.

He also said, apropos of recent reports to that effect, that he had no knowledge of a similar intention on the part of William M. Butler, Massachusetts, to quit as chairman of the Republican national committee.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who was pictured in published reports here as about to be shifted to the secretaryship of state, said, upon leaving today's cabinet meeting that "there is not a word of truth in it."

Priceless Oil Painting

The oldest oil painting in existence today, says the Market for Exchange, is believed to be one of the Madonna and Child marked with the date DCCCLXXXVI, which in Arabic numerals is 886, or about the time of Charlemagne. The painting once formed part of the art treasures of a Florentine palace and was purchased by Bencivenni from a broker in the street for a few livres.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ the Ever-Present Helper.

The storm-tossed disciples on the sea at night are an example of the struggling followers of the Lord in the darkness of the present age, as they are tossed by the tempests of the evil one.

I. The Disciples on the Storm-Tossed Sea (vv. 22-24).

1. They are sent across the sea by Christ (v. 22).

"Jesus constrained His disciples to get into a ship." Doubtless His reason for this was to keep them from entanglement in the movement of the people to make Him King, for in John 6:14, 15, it is shown that the people were so excited by the feeding of the 5,000 that they were about to make Him King by force.

2. Christ dismisses the multitudes (v. 22).

This may be taken as typical of His rejection by the nation whose rulers had already rejected Him.

3. Christ praying alone in the mountain (v. 23).

Temptation to earthly honor and power had come to Him, therefore He went to the Father in prayer for relief and strength. The need of prayer is greatest at such times. According to Mark 6:48 He saw from the mountain the disciples toiling on the storm-tossed sea.

II. Jesus Walking on the Sea (vv. 25-27).

1. It was in the fourth watch of the night (v. 25).

He did not come to them immediately, but waited till almost dawn. However, it was the darkest part of the night. Their physical danger was great, but no doubt their mental perplexity was greater. They knew that the Lord had sent them, but why should they be in such straits if He sent them? The stormy sea is no evidence that the disciple is not in the Lord's appointed way.

2. The disciples alarmed at His coming (v. 26).

At the sight of Him they cried out for fear. They said: "It is a spirit." It was the coming of their best friend to deliver them from danger.

3. Jesus' words of comfort and good cheer (v. 27).

In the midst of their distress they heard the Master's words, "Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid." This changed their fear to joy.

III. Peter Walking on the Sea (vv. 28, 29).

1. Peter's request.

As soon as Peter recognized the voice of Jesus he cried: "Bid me come to thee on the water" (v. 28).

2. Jesus' response (v. 29).

At the Lord's "come," Peter left the ship and walked on the water. While he kept his eyes on the Lord he walked on the waves. His faith linked him with the divine power and was thus upheld. Vital faith in Jesus Christ will enable the disciple to outride the storms of life.

IV. Peter Sinking (v. 30).

He took his eyes off the Lord and placed them upon the raging sea. This separated him from the divine power. We should learn to fix our eyes upon the Lord instead of upon our circumstances. Failure will surely follow if we give consideration to our circumstances and our own ability to master them.

V. Christ Rescuing Peter (v. 31).

When Peter began to sink he did the sensible thing. He cried out: "Lord, save me." Immediately Jesus stretched forth His hand and caught him. His salvation from death at the bottom of the sea was the result of the Lord taking hold of him. Jesus Christ in the incarnation was the divine hand reaching forth to rescue a sinking world. The significance of the expression "caught him" is made clear in Hebrews 2:16. It is there declared that Jesus took not upon Himself the nature of angels but took upon Himself the seed of Abraham. The same Greek word occurs in verse 31 of this lesson. We should understand from this that the eternal Son of God did not come in the form of a man in order to show man the way to God, but identified Himself with man through incorporation with Him. He came, not as an example, but as a Savior.

WAS THE WATCH YOU CARRY NEW...WHEN HANSOMS RULED THE STREETS?

A watch may never lose a second yet be many years slow

The owner of such a watch may never miss a train or an appointment but it is the one false note in his modern makeup, probably the only thing he has that stamps him as a bit old-fashioned, a trifle behind the times. And yet a new and modish Elgin can be had at a moderate sum. Slipped into your pocket, or strapped on your wrist, it will win and hold your affection as no other watch possibly can. For Elgin is conceded to be the world's standard for watch integrity.

PEKIN SOLDIERS RAID THE SOVIET EMBASSY BUILDING

Twenty-Two Russian and 50 Chinese, Described As Agitators, Removed By General Chang Tso Lin Commander of Northern Army—Americans Held—Overt Act Stirs New Crises That May Bring Armies of Moscow Into the Field.

The Chinese foreign office Wednesday night lodged a protest with the Soviet embassy as a result of the findings in Wednesday's raid. The ground of the protest was the "use of the Soviet embassy to disseminate propaganda for the overthrow" of the existing government.

Peking, the ancient capital of China and now seat of the northern government as the country is divided between north and south in civil strife, Wednesday night had become the principal stage in the Oriental war drama.

New international complications are apparent as a result of the raid Wednesday on buildings attached to the Soviet embassy and the removal of 22 Russians and 50 Chinese, described as agitators.

What action Moscow will take as the aftermath of the episode is arousing keenest speculation, and all eyes are turned in the direction of the Soviet capital and the Russo-Manchurian frontier.

The raids in the embassy compound were continued thruout the day, but Wednesday night the embassy proper had not been entered. However, Soviet authorities regarded the premises entered to be part of the embassy so the greatest apprehension was felt on all sides.

Certain official quarters, looking into the future, even professed to see an alignment of Soviet Russia and southern China against the European powers, the United States and north China.

The raid on the Soviet buildings was carried out by troops attached to the army of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, assisted by Peking police. The buildings raided were the Dahlbank (Soviet bank), the Eastern railway building and a building formerly used by the Russian Legation guards in czarist times.

The raiders rushed the compound Wednesday morning. One shot was heard and soon afterward a Russian was dragged from the compound fighting and kicking. He was bound and carried off in an automobile.

The raiders searched the buildings and by noon a large crowd of foreigners and Chinese had gathered at the gateway of the embassy to watch the prisoners dragged out. A number went quietly and others struggled violently.

While the raid was in progress fire started in the building formerly occupied by the Russian legation guard. A report was circulated, altho its truth could not be confirmed, that the fire was started to prevent records falling into the hands of the northeners. Two fire brigades sped to the building and extinguished the flames, altho not before ammunition in the structure exploded, wounding one Russian seriously.

Reliable information indicated that officially there is considered to be a great distinction between the Soviet embassy proper, where the officers and residences of leading Soviet officials are situated and the other part of the embassy grounds containing the Dahlbank, the Chinese eastern railway offices and the residences of many minor officials and other Russians.

Theoretically the raid was said to be not on the embassy, but on the eastern railway building and the Dahlbank. To reach the railway building however, the troops had to go several hundred yards along a road within the Legation quarter.

For this, permission was asked from and granted by the diplomatic corps. The railway partly is Chinese owned.

Among those arrested were the staff of the Dahlbank, a prominent Chinese agitator named Li Ta-Chao and three girl students. The Russians and Chinese seized by the raiders were taken to a police station.

Numerous bundles of red flags, seven carloads of propaganda leaflets, a machine gun, a trench mortar, bombs, a score of rifles, thousands of Kuomintang (the Cantonese political party) flags and a quantity of ammunition were said to have been taken from the raided buildings.

STERILIZATION MEASURE GETS COMMITTEE O. K.

Codes committee of the house Wednesday recommended for passage the Cummings bill to provide for sexual sterilization of mental defectives and certain classes of criminals. The committee struck out of the bill a section which would have permitted persons outside institutions to be thus treated.

Dr. E. J. Emerick, superintendent of the state bureau of juvenile research, who spoke for the bill, said the medical profession was practically unanimous for the measure. The bill, he said, was modeled after the California law with similar requirements.

The house health committee has recommended for passage the Chappelear eugenics marriage bill, which requires a physical examination of applicants for marriage licenses and legalizes sterilization. Both bills have passed the senate.

COWBOY FINDS BODIES OF AIR MAIL FLIERS

Pair Killed When the Plane Crashed to Earth in Darkness of Early Morning.

Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Italian world flyer of Apache lodge, Roosevelt Lake, Arizona, Thursday was uncertain as to plans for resuming his four continent jaunt following the burning of his plane the "Santa Maria."

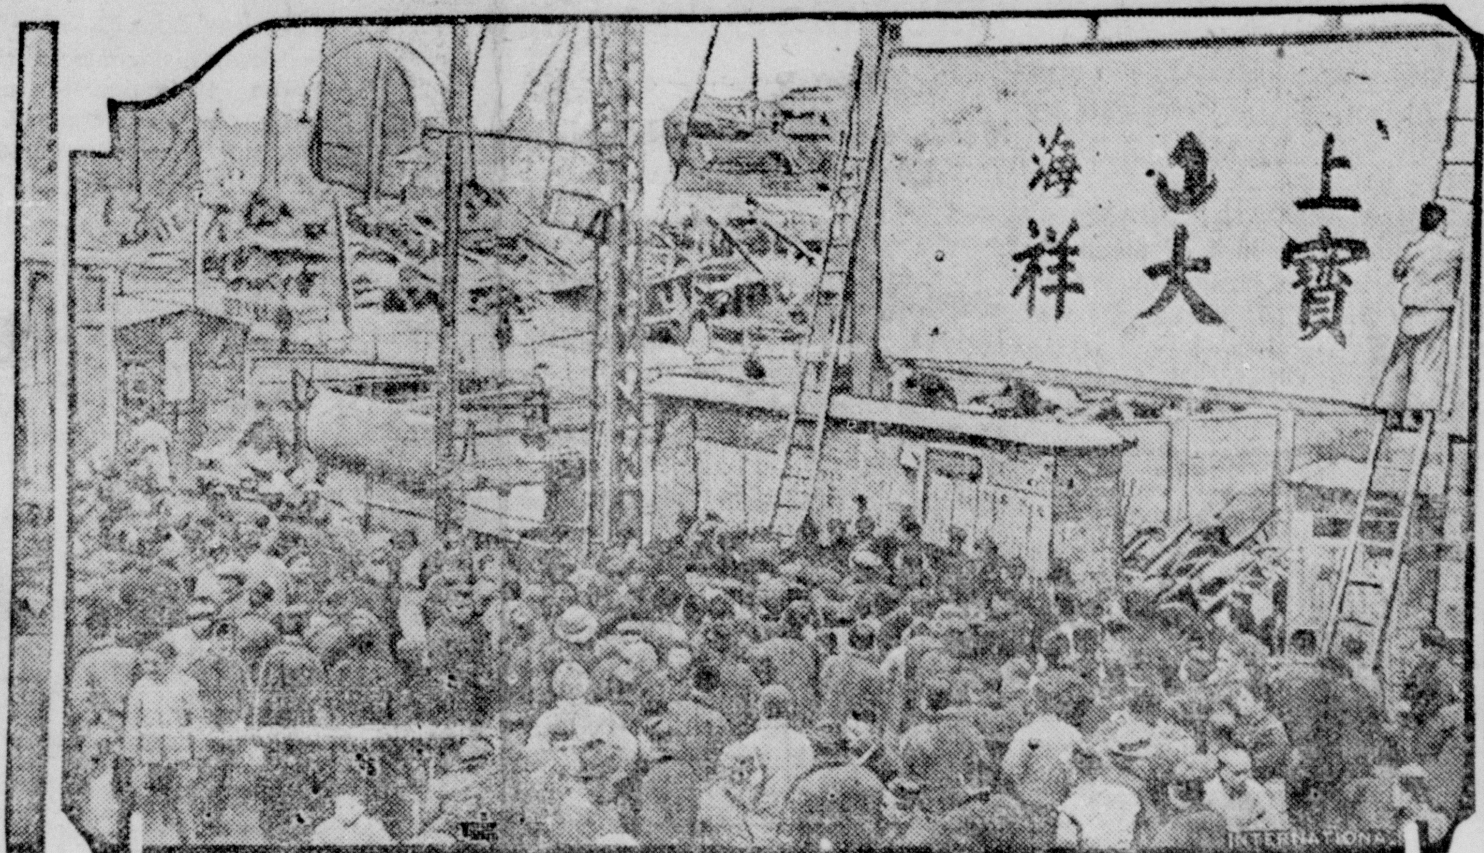

Before retiring late yesterday with orders not to be disturbed until today, the flyer said he would remain and attempt to raise his wrecked plane from the 185 feet of water in which it sank.

War department officials at Washington have offered De Pinedo the use of an army plane with which to complete his flight and premier Mussolini cabled word from Rome that another plane would be sent to him from Italy.

The "Santa Maria" was destroyed while at anchor on the lake by fire started when a youth tossed a cigaret into the water and ignited gasoline which had been spilled in refilling the plane.

Danger From Insects

Doctor Neave of the Entomological society of London, has stated that insects destroyed at least 10 per cent of all the plants which man cultivates for food or clothing, and it has been calculated that if the checks, natural and artificial, on the increase of the many species of green-fly, for example, were removed, the whole of the vegetable growth of the globe would be destroyed in six months.

JUDGE RAYMOND EMPHATIC IN HIS RULINGS

Tells Senator Reed to Cut Out His Ridicule and Get Down to Business.

Sidelights held the interest Wednesday in Aaron Sapiro's $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford, of Detroit, Michigan, as the eighth day of cross examination labored thru the routine of ascertaining from Sapiro the names of farmers' cooperatives with which he has been affiliated and the fees he received.

There was criticism of a Republican presidential possibility by one from the Democratic ranks, when Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, chief of the Ford counsel, assailed Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois as a "capitalist" and as "the son-in-law of Pullman of the Pullman Car Co.," two stern rebukes from the court and a renewed assertion by Senator Reed that Sapiro accepted employment by two bodies and played them against each other for his personal gain.

For the second time since the trial started Sapiro testified specifically that the alleged libelous articles printed in Ford's Dearborn Independent caused him to lose a job and the income it had netted him by pointing out the facts he is a Jew and seeking to connect him with an international Jewish conspiracy to control agriculture products.

At adjournment the opposing attorneys had instructions from Federal Judge M. Haymond to select a representative each to go over journals, ledgers and other volumes of the bookkeepers' craft and agree upon a set of figures that could be submitted as evidence rather than have Senator Reed spend further days in an effort to draw them from Sapiro.

Lowden's name came into the case when Reed is asking for a list of national organizations Sapiro had represented, mentioned the National Wheat Growers advisory committee, formed at Chicago in September, 1923.

Senator Reed found a number of urban names listed and scornfully asked of each: "He's not a wheat grower?"

Arriving at Lowden's name he paused and then with sarcasm demanded:

"And Governor Lowden, he never grew any wheat did he?"

Sapiro heatedly flashed his reply: "Oh, he may grow wheat. He certainly grows some grains."

"He is a capitalist, isn't he?" asked Reed with the trace of a sneer.

"No, he is not a capitalist," returned the angered witness. "He is a splendid lawyer and a very fine farmer, probably the largest farmer in some respects on the entire United States."

"Does he make his living farming or is the son-in-law of the Pullman of the Pullman Car Co.?" the senator asked in conclusion.

"I don't think he makes his living as the son-in-law of Pullman," defended Sapiro. "He makes his living by his work as a lawyer and by his work as a farmer."

It was not many minutes until Reed and Sapiro were at it again, but Judge Raymond stopped them with the most emphatic ruling he has had since the trial started.

"If the witness and counsel cannot cease this sort of question and answer the court will have to intervene. The court has submitted to all that it can submit to along that line. Conversation is not to be indulged in henceforth."

EXCELLENT

PROGRAM

Presented To Capacity Audience
At the High School Auditorium Last Night.

Especially good from start to finish was the program presented to an audience that filled every seat in the High School auditorium and left not even standing room as even the aisles on both sides were crowded, last evening.

The first number on the program was a group of songs by the High School Glee club which is composed of Katharine May, Helen Hitler, Eleanor Snyder and Mary Crist, sopranos; Mary Wiloughby, Ruth Cryder, Helen Steele and Winifred Given, altos; Chas. Walters, Carl Palm and Earl Green as tenors; Joseph Adkins, Gus Groom, Eugene Smith and Henry Harding, basses.

Probably the most attractive number to the audience was the "Toy Orchestra" composed of little tots from the second grade of the Corwin street building. These little ones to the accompaniment of a victrola, played softly on cymbals, drums, triangles, bells and tambourines and were directed by little Eileen Brooks with a regular baton. The really remarkable thing about this orchestra was the fact that each and every individual child in the lot kept perfect time and there were no breaks or errors. Every child performed his and her part perfectly. This number was a real big treat for the parents of the little ones and also for every one who witnessed it. Miss Wittich who drilled them, deserves much praise for her work and the success of the affair speaks loudly of her efforts.

Charles Walters delighted his audience by singing a tenor solo, "The Little Gray Home in the West." This was Charles' first public appearance and the applause that followed his solo was evidence of the appreciation of the audience.

In the first little playlet entitled "The Neighbors," Eleanor Fitzpatrick and Gladden Troutman had the most difficult roles which both played perfectly. Eleanor was typically matter of fact and Gladden was a scream from start to finish as the bashful lover who could not think what to say to his best girl.

Leona DeLong as Grandma, was certainly tired of sewing carpet rags. Erna Merriman was her usual comical self and was so very busy getting shot of a "buffalo bug." Ezra Williams (Eugene Smith) couldn't not think of anything but cord wood. Eloise Hilyard took the part of Mrs. Moran who did not have any children but she knew, just the same. Miss Eleanor Snyder then sang two solos accompanied by Miss Wittich. She is one of the youthful artists who has personality, and like Jimmie Walker, you have to like her.

In the second playlet, "The Mock Trial," the choosing of a jury and the final decision of the same was decidedly ludicrous. In this, Eleanor Fitzpatrick shone. She was a suffragist and was the self-appointed spokesman for the jury. She had a hard time keeping Dudley Carpenter in his seat. (Footlight McGruff), who could not sit still. Also she knew the Judge (Chas. Walters) before he was Judge and when his wife took in washings to support him. She was the Everett True of the court room. Bob Pickens (Lawyer Snapcash), displayed his usual at homeness on the stage and made an excellent plea for his client, Abijah Pippins (Eugene Smith) who was being sued for breach of promise by Lenora Smithly Trustly (Mary Crist). The plaintiff was ably represented by Earl Green as Lawyer Fussyboy. The entire court room was thrown into disorder when Paul (Shanty) Kirwin as Jamicon Jams who "shook," finally "threw a fit," and Levi Hackhimer (Gladden Troutman), nearly lost his wares getting away. Gus Groom made a typical Chinaman as One Lung Gong, a Chinese laundryman who could not speak English nor seven other languages which the Judge spoke. Robert Peters as Hooligan was also very ludicrous as was Chas. Goeller as Vanderbilt Persimmons who was a barber by profession but gambler by preference. This was very funny and thoroughly enjoyed.

Helen Steele as the Bride's Kid in the last act was what Eleanor Glyn calls "It." Her part was acted as near perfection as a professional could have made it. Mabel Young was the bride who told about her part in the wedding and never mentioned the groom and it was finally discovered that the groom failed to materialize.

The entire program was good as we have said and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone who saw it.
